The President's Report

By Rod Richert

"I'M IN CONTROL HERE."

Alexander Haig, The White House, March 30, 1981

No, the pillars of power can prove to be much more complicated, Al. Such is also true to the MAHC. As the president of your club, I've discovered through a careful reading of its bylaws that true power rests with the board of directors. This came to light when I contacted officers to thank them for their service in 2008 and ask them if they would be willing to continue into 2009. In the case of the board members, the bylaws require a 2/5 or 3/5 turn over each year requiring at least one more candidate than the number of positions filled. Tom Hazen has proposed that we eliminate the extra candidate (fall guy?) and let the board choose persons to join the board to be voted upon at the annual November meeting.

The bylaws also state that the "President of the MAHC appoint a search committee...to find candidates for election to the Board of Directors." In my opinion, the last thing anyone needs is an unnecessary committee and instead propose amending the bylaws to mandate a September board meeting to initiate board succession.

Speaking of succession, the only other office turning over each year is that of vice-president. Nowhere in the bylaws is that process codified. Traditionally the vice-president has picked his/her successor. If the club agrees that to tackle the amending process, it might be in the club's interest to put this in writing.

As president, I'll ask for thoughts on this topic PIE at in January and February to see if this is worth pursuing.

Finally, I would be remiss if I didn't extend a belated thank you to Steve and Kim Rixen for the donation of silent auction items in the memory of Sandy Rixen. Seventy-five dollars was raised for the club treasury at the annual banquet. Thanks also to those contributing.

This was our first PIE with Rod Reichert as President, Congratulations Rod! We met in the lower level of the Fort Snelling Officer's Club. Rod began by reminding us all about the Annual Planning Meeting to be held the next Saturday, December 6. Details of the meeting are in the Vice President's report.

We received a Thank You letter from Feed My Starving Children for the November 8 event the club participated in. The club's $200 donation will provide 1,176 meals for starving children!

Jim Wojcik, our video librarian, is interested in upgrading the library with a few DVDs. 1 of particular interest is the Tops and Upholstery guide. Tom Mason's overdrive overhaul video is also of interest.

Todd Schwein has purchased 6 months of ads in our newsletter for his winery. They will be run during driving season, from May to October. This will bring in $180 in revenues. Thanks Todd!

Rendezvous Update: Greg Lauser, Mike Martin, Tom Moerke and Rod Richert went up to Ashland to check things out. For the car show they'll clear Main Street, which is great news. We're looking for volunteers for 2009, if you're interested, please contact Tom Moerke to discuss options.

Reminder! 2009 membership dues are due; please send them in as soon as possible. The membership form is available at <http://www.mnhealey.com/mnhealey/membership.htm>.

Please print and mail the completed form along with your check to: Jim Kriz, 2000 Kenwood Parkway, Minneapolis, MN 55405.

Name Tags: Tom Hazen almost has enough names together for another name tag order. If you don't have a name tag and are a current, paid club member (or significant other of a member) and have attended a club event in the past few months you're eligible to get a name tag. If you meet these criteria, please email Tom at myliberty@comcast.net and give him the correct spelling of your name as you would like it to appear on the tag.

On a fun note, Spook Johns' Healey is on the road and he brought pictures to share. It's looking good so far!

RENDEZVOUS 2009 INFOby Tom Moerke

The Great Lakes Rendezvous is coming along fine, thanks to the great people who helping make this a great event. Barb Ronning, in particular, has done a great job in lining up alternate motels for us to stay in in case the AmericInn full. And that may happen soon, so if you want to stay at the headquarters motel with its water park and fancy free breakfasts better do it now. The number 715- 682-9950 and they do not require a deposit, only your credit card no. But we do need volunteers to greet the arriving people from all over the states and Canada. Why I even know of people coming from California and Washington. Can you beat that ?? These volunteers will give a big hello to the sports car people who will probably arrive tired and thirsty and will be offered water, soft drinks, beer and wine. If you can help please give me a call at 715-386-5341 or 651-402-2153 or tcmoerke@pressenter.com. Remember only 6 months to go. I can hardly wait

The VP REPORT

By Katy Olson

Minnesota Austin Healey Club Vice President's Report

This year, our Annual Planning Meeting was held on December 6, 2008. There was a good turnout with the following club members attending: George Arthur, Curt Carlson, Ron Corazzo, Aaron Courteau, Phil Ethier (Mn Autosports Club), Tom Hazen, Jim Kriz, Greg Lauser, Jeff Lombard, Michael Manser, Sally Manser, Mike Martin, Dick Mathews, June Moerke, Tom Moerke, Dale Martin, Larry Nimmerfroh, Katy Olson, Rod Reichert, Kim Rixen, Steve Rixen, Barb Ronning, Gary Ronning, Wayne Soderbeck, Betty Stine, Carl Stine and Jack Stein.

Our morning started at the Old Country Buffet out in West St. Paul bright and early. Yours truly got lost on the way and arrived just in time for the planning session. Rod did a fantastic job walking us all through the calendar and Curt graciously volunteered to play Vanna by hanging the months up for all to see. We were done by 11 and there was time for Rendezvous planning too, afterwards.

We have a great line up of events upcoming in 2009. The events closely match up with last year's with a few exceptions. This year we have 2 Gymkhanas on the calendar and the Adopt a Highway events have been coupled with the Spring Awakening Tour and the Fall Colors Tour in an attempt to increase participation. Curt has already posted the new calendar on our website. Start at our homepage; <http://www.mnhealey.com> and click on the "Calendar" link to find it. Curt is testing new software for our calendar. If you have any comments, please send Curt your thoughts at mnhealey@gmail.com

Thanks for all the good work! I'm looking forward to a fun, event packed year!
Katy
