Presidential Proclamations

By Rod Richert

This marks my last column as president of the MAHC. It's been a great year marked by a full calendar of successful events enjoyed by many. The dry '09 season contributed greatly to happy Healeying. At the annual banquet on the 21st, I'll have the chance to thank those that contributed mightily; but because I so admire the efforts of so many, I'd like to begin by thanking them here.

First, I'd like to thank newsletter editors Larry Nimmerfroh and Gary Ronning. The Healey Enthusiast is the single most important effort contributing to the success of the club. Next, those opening their homes to events, including Tom and June Moerke, Wayne Soderbeck with Jan Huston, Mike and Gloria Lynch (twice!), Carl and Betty Stine, and Herb and Marsha Miller. Planning and leading tours were Tom Moerke, Greg Lauser, and Gary Ronning. The 6th Gymkhana was run by Scott McQueen, Aaron Courteau, and Katy Olson. Three major speed events were hosted by the master of speed himself, Tom Hazen. The season was bookended by two highway cleanups courtesy of Greg Lauser, and the final event before the annual banquet--a charity event by Dale Martin.

Congratulations in advance to the incoming president and vice president--you lead a great crew that keeps the MAHC wheels spinning!

Twenty years ago this month, Gary and Barb Ronning graciously opened their home to the annual club Pizza and Planning Party.

Ten years ago this month, club president Brent Hogberg hosted a November 6th "Snow Flurry Tour" over the roads of northern Washington County.

Editor's Note: A big Thank You goes to Rod Richert for his very diligent and capable service as President for 2009.

Also the MMGG tour is to be lead by our own Steve Rixen.

The MMGG Halloween Party will be on October 31, hosted by Bob and Laurie Jensen.

Fall Adopt-A-Highway Team

Dodges Snow, Wind Chills in 20s

By Greg Lauser

Neither gusty winds, nor snow stayed the hearty group of 14 Minnesota Austin-Healey Club members and friends who braved temperatures in the low 30s and wind chills in the 20s from completing their appointed rounds as part of the fall Adopt-A-Highway crew Saturday, Oct. 10. The good news is the pickup went well, there was no rain or sleet and the sun broke through toward the end of the 90-minute clean-up effort.

Thanks to Kim Rixen and Eileen Wetzel for bringing along scrumptious treats that fortified hungry crew members after their duties were completed. There was no doubt of the treats' popularity. All of them not-so-mysteriously disappeared by the time picture taking ended and everyone got on the road home, or south to Veterans Memorial Highway Roadside Park for "rest" and participation in the MAHC Fall Color Tour.

Rob Hanson of the Minnesota Jaguar Club joined the fun and thoroughly enjoyed the treats. New Jaguar Club member Jared Hoke and his sister, Jill Johnson – who was visiting the area from Whidbey Island, Washington – also joined the crew in time to drive the Fall Color Tour. Jared took the group photo.

Thanks to all who participated in the pickup. We'll see you and others, we hope, next spring.

Fall Color Tour Features “Buena Vista” Experience

By Greg Lauser

Four vintage vehicles – three Austin-Healeys and one Jaguar – barely outnumbered the three BJ-9 vehicles that comprised the Oct. 10 Minnesota Austin-Healey Club Fall Color Tour to The Monarch Public House in Fountain City, Wis. While the colors were did not cooperate fully, a dozen folks enjoyed the camaraderie, conversation and Irish pub food menu items at the Monarch, which has operated constantly as some form of restaurant and inn since 1896.

In addition to MAHC members, two members of the Minnesota Jaguar Club and one Jag Club member’s sister went hunting for fall colors in sunny but chilly conditions that day. Rob Hanson and Jared Hoke of the Jag Club, and Jared’s sister – Jill Johnson, who was back in the area for her 50th Wayzata High School class reunion from her home at Whidbey Island, Wash., were new, welcome participants. Jared has an Austin-Healey currently being restored at Lee Lawrence’s shop in Shakopee, Minn., and is looking forward to getting it on the road sometime next spring.

After food and libations, the group headed north to Alma, Wis., and a photo-opportunity stop at Buena Vista Park, where the bluffs dramatically overlook downtown, the Mississippi River and a lock and dam. Although there was a longer, more scenic route planned from there, everyone opted to head home directly up Wisconsin Highway 35 due to the chilly weather and a desire by several people to stop for ice-cream desserts at the creamery in Nelson, Wis.

Fall Tour with the MGs

Steve & Kim Rixen planned and led a nice tour for the Minnesota MG Group on Saturday October 17th. The day was cool, but mostly sunny; and there were some Healeyites attending too ! Starting at Hudson, WI, we wound our way down to Red Wing for a rest and shopping stop. After that, the tour went back to Wisconsin and ran through Coulee Country. The leaves had not turned brilliant yet, but nevertheless beautiful. We ended up back in Hudson at Paddy Ryan's Pub for refreshments and Irish fare ! A jolly good day ! Ed.
